YOUNG AMERICA MOURNS

Twice during the 1963-1964 school year, our flag, along with flags all over the United States, was flown at half-staff in honor of two men who gave to their country the full measure of devotion.

JOHN F. KENNEDY
President of the United States,
1960 - November 22, 1963

GENERAL DOUGLAS McARTHUR

"Ask not what your country can do for you but rather ask what you can do for your country."

JOHN F. KENNEDY

"I shall return."

The Executive Committee of the Student Council represents a group whose duties were legion, and whose efforts contributed much toward the harmony and spirit that is evident at Cambridge High School.

"Let Us Give Thanks"

The Thanksgiving Assembly was sponsored by the Spartan Hi-Y.

Thomas Chappellear, David Tedrick, Rev. Thurman Alexander, James Kagafas, Dennis Jones.

"Bernie" Allen, professional baseball player, was the guest speaker at an assembly sponsored by the Varsity "C" Club.

Michael Lyons, Dan Putzulu, Mr. Reese, Mr. Allen, the Rev. Mr. Tice, Paul Franks, Thomas Chapplelear.

A Little Free Time

The Easter program was presented entirely by members of the Senior class. The background was the work of Paul Moorehead and James Kagafas.

C.H.S. Welcomes a Visitor

Cambridge High School experienced a distinct honor this year in having been chosen to receive a visiting educator from abroad.

Mr. Kandiah G. Yogam, a school administrator from Malaysia, was our guest for a month, during which time he not only received information from us but contributed much to our knowledge of his country and his people.

As Assistant Director of Teacher Training in the Ministry of Education in Malaysia, Mr. Yogam was particularly interested in curriculum, courses of study, and the teacher training program in which our high school cooperates with Muskingum College.

Mr. Yogam was a delightful visitor and community groups, as well as high school classes and organizations, were extremely interested in his accounts of life in Malaysia and the educational program there.

Mr. Yogam came to this country under the auspices of the International Teacher Development Program and as a result of our pleasant experiences with him, the faculty and students of Cambridge High School would welcome an opportunity to participate in this program again.

Mr. McFarland presents gift from the Cambridge teachers to Mr. Yogam.

Mr. Yogam and Mr. Shelby stand near the refreshment table which was decorated with the flags of Malaysia and the United States.

Students never tired of asking Mr. Yogam about the customs and habits of the people of his country, and all found him most gracious in giving his time to any group that wished to talk with him.

Mr. Yogam speaks to Miss McGaughy's history class.

The Key Club, working with the guidance counselor, Mr. Loper, and club advisor, Mr. Wolfe, sponsored another successful Career Day Program.

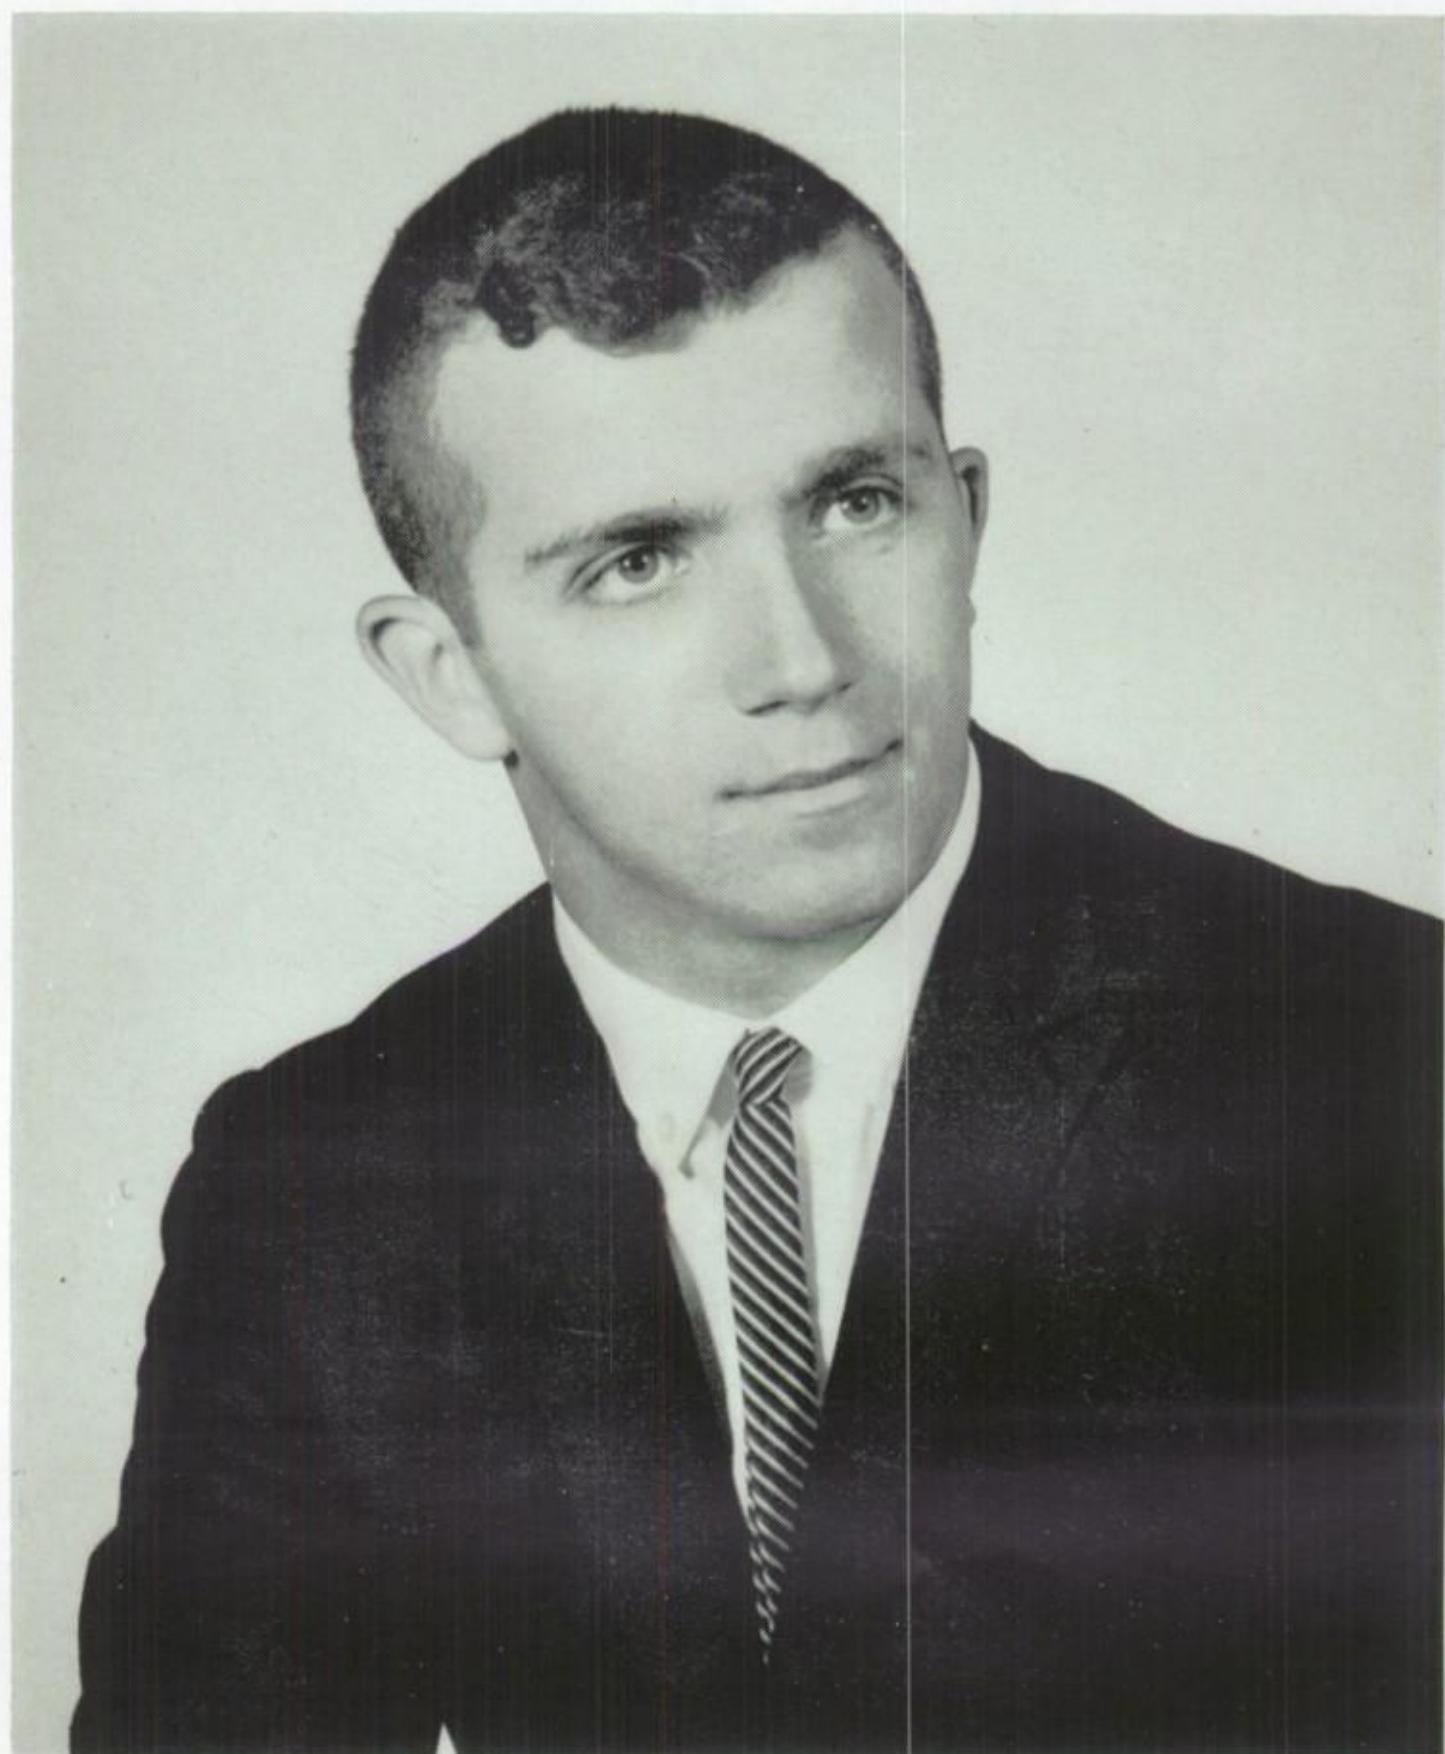

Career Day aims at bringing a wide variety of vocational opportunities to the attention of the students by means of various speakers who are experts in the field.

This year Career Day was held March 17th and included fifty-one different occupational groups. Each student attended two discussion groups.

At the half-time ceremonies of the game between the Fighting Bobcats and the Dover Tornadoes, the Cambridge High School band presented the Annual Blues Show in honor of the queen and her court.

Following the game, Queen Joyce and her court were guests of honor at a dance held in the gymnasium for the pleasure of alumni and students.

Whether it is an athletic contest, a musical program, an art display, a class play or party, or one of the more important scholastic projects, the students of Cambridge High School have no more loyal supporter than their principal, Mr. McFarland.

His motto is still, "There may be schools just as good, but there are none better than Cambridge High School."

Whatever the problem, whatever the request — each student may approach our principal with the confidence that he will listen and will base his decision on what he believes to be best for the student and for the school.

SECRETARIES

No one is called upon to do as many different things in the course of a school day as are the secretaries. Students and faculty alike depend upon them and appreciate their many services.

This year fourteen students spent one period of the day in the high school office assisting the secretaries by delivering messages, answering the telephone, greeting visitors, and doing a number of other useful chores. Their service was especially appreciated on those days when everyone seemed to have urgent business in the office.

In any large production there are many individuals who work behind the scenes, at unusual hours, and in various places, but who are most essential to the success of the production.

Here at Cambridge High School the cafeteria ladies, the bus drivers and the custodians — whose services we often take for granted — contribute much to the comfort and efficiency of each school day.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

A highlight in this year's events of the Junior class was the presentation to the public of a play, The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners.

A change from the usual comedy or mystery selections was evident in the juniors' dramatic production. The Incident carried a deep plot concerning the neglect and forgetfulness of people today and their influence on others.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior class presented Pioneer, Go Home, a hilarious comedy and a satire on the government. The Kwimpers, a hillbilly family from New Jersey, moved to Columbiana and established Kwimperville. They had their troubles with tourists, Arthur King, a social worker, gangsters, and the Internal Revenue Service. They finally established a permanent coexistence with the government and everything ended happily.

MAY DAY

"April Showers Bring May Flowers" was the theme of the 1964 May Day Dance, which was held in the high school gymnasium on the evening of May first. The dance was planned and sponsored by the G.A.A.

Reigning over the dance was Dawn McCloud, the 1964 May queen. Her maid of honor was Jean Wycoff and other members of the court were Barbara Beatty, Joyce Maioli, and Carol Shimp.

Highlights of the evening's entertainment were the presentation of the traditional May Pole Dance and the Sword Dance by senior girls.

Decorations and programs were furnished by the G.A.A., and refreshments were served.

MAJORETTES

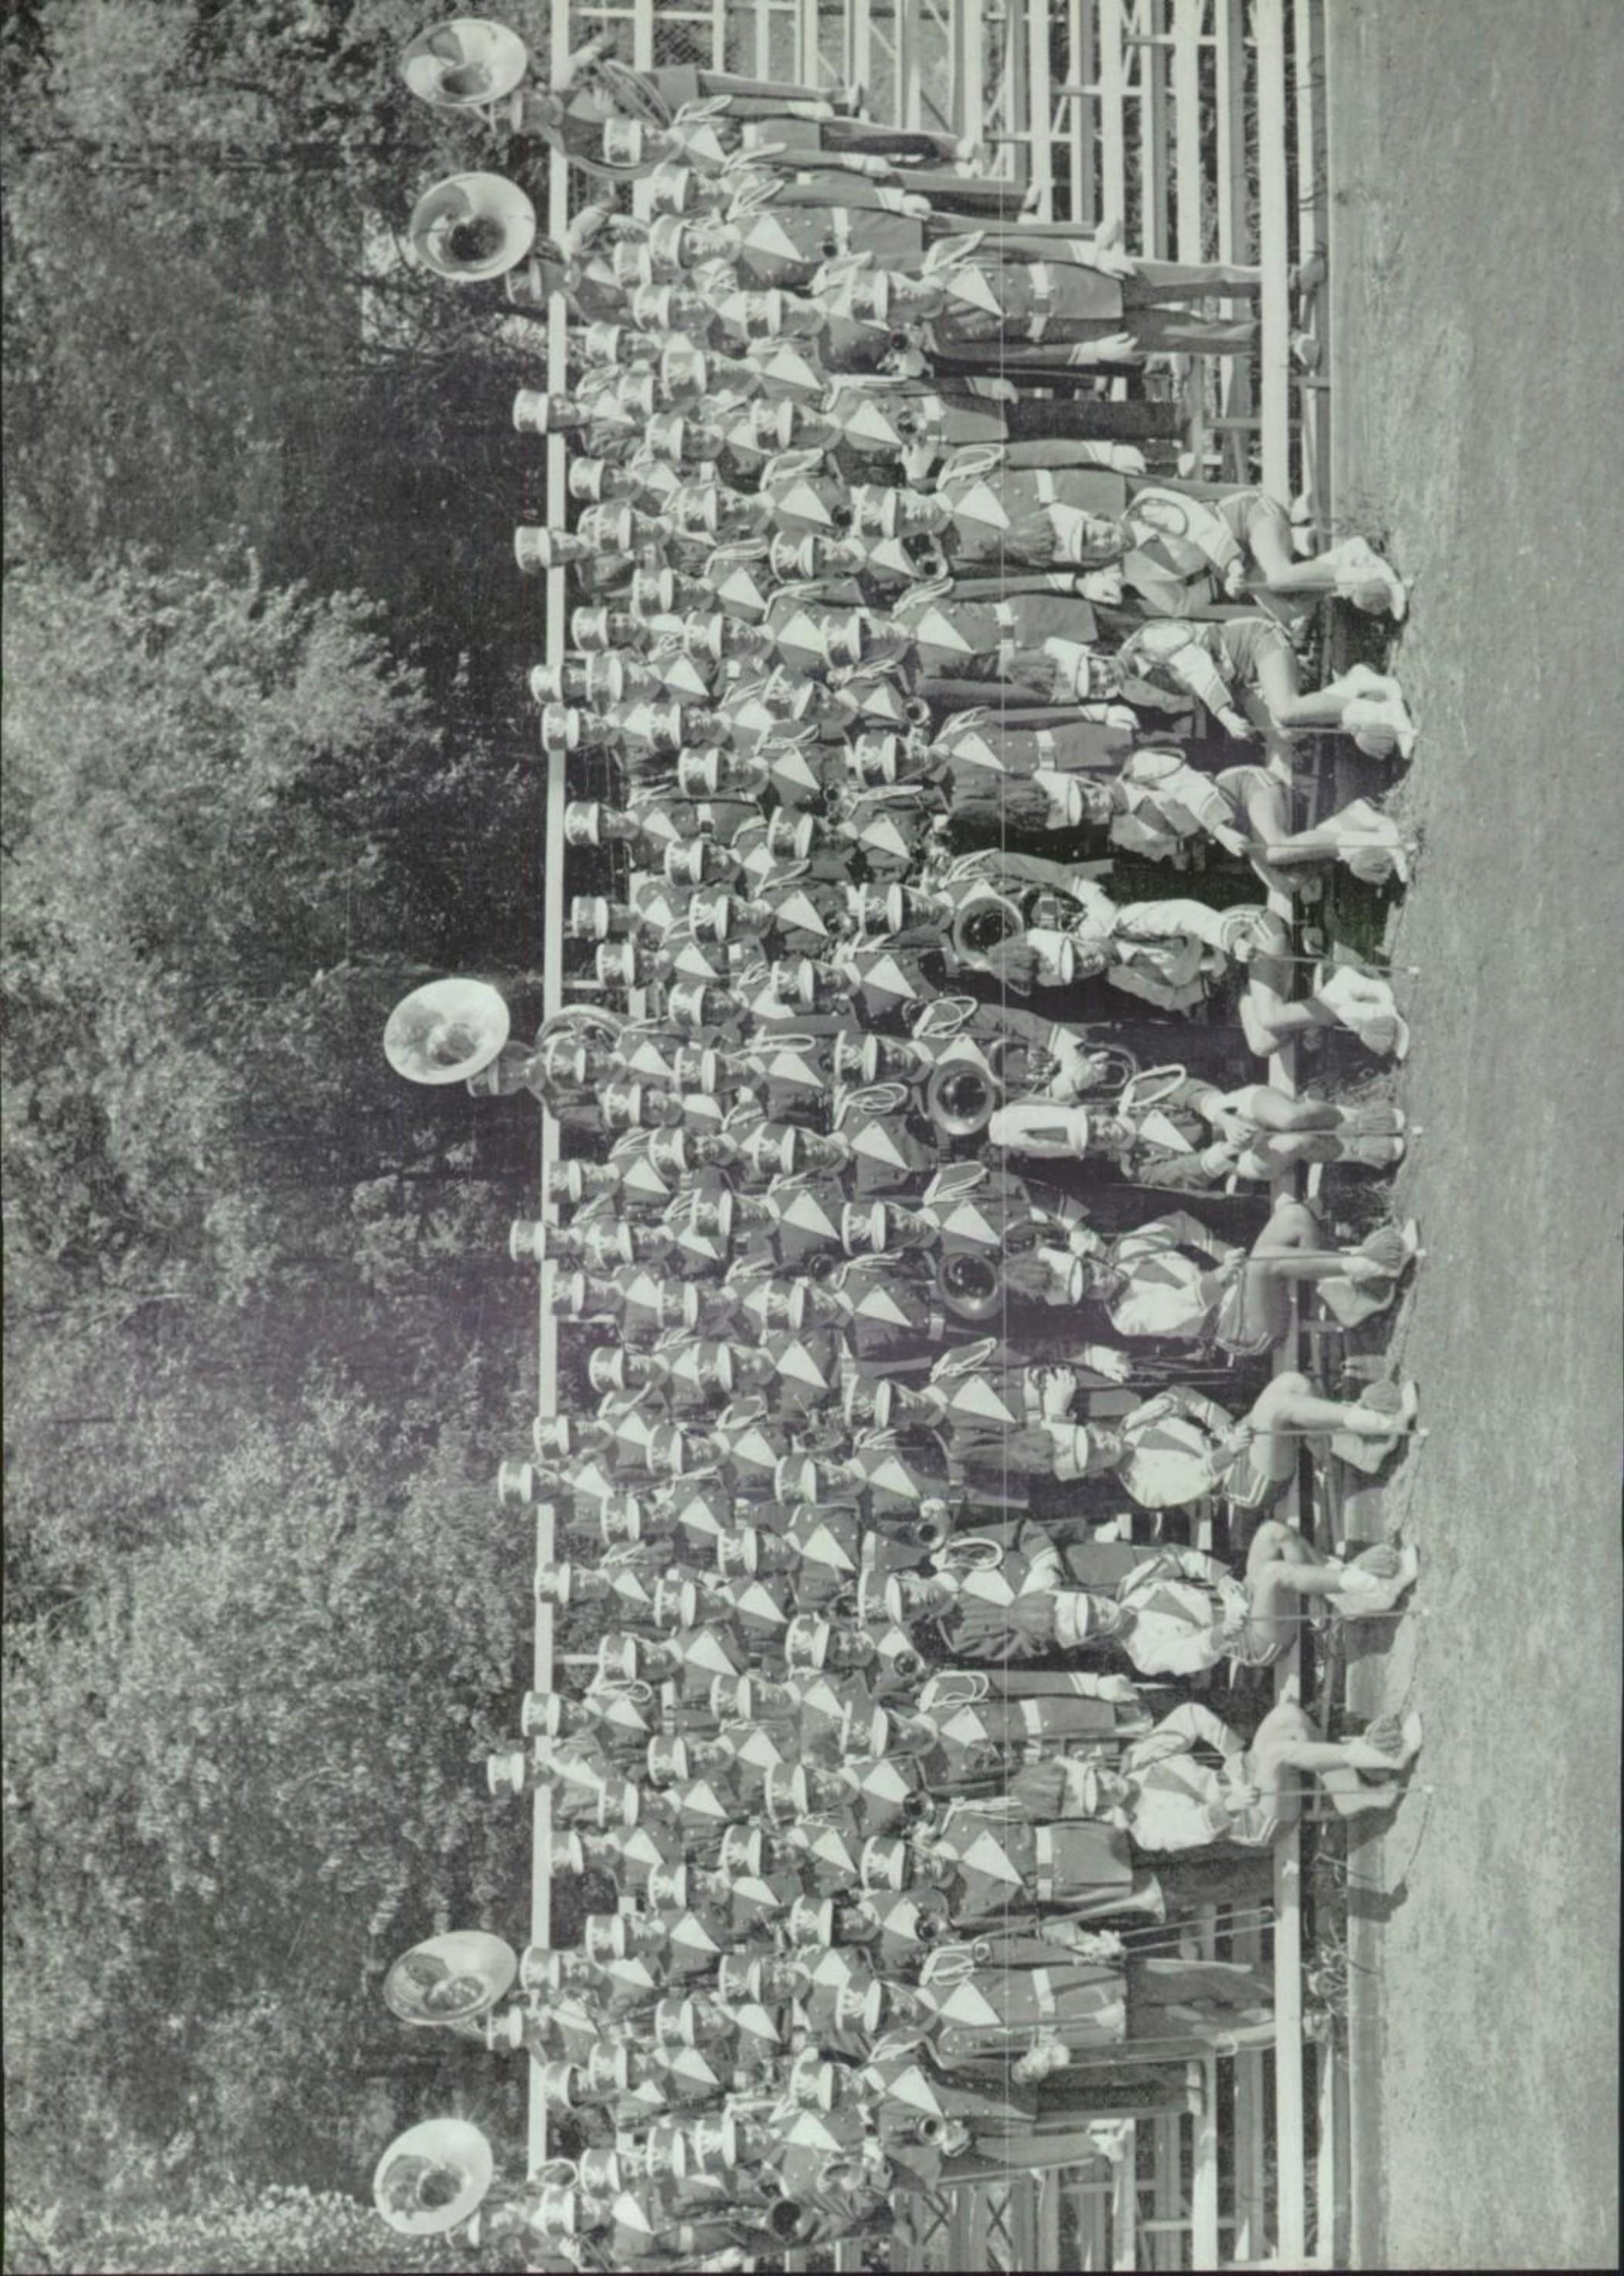

The nine majorettes, under the leadership of Mr. Nixon and Gary DeVault, head majorette, contributed much to the excitement and color of the performances of the C.H.S. marching Band.

After practicing with the band for football games and parades, they had their own practice sessions to perfect their dancing and twirling routines. Using props and winsome smiles, they brought their skills to life in events such as parades, pep rallies, and football games.

The majorettes worked hard to raise funds for them to attend a summer camp. While at camp they received a first place in daily routines, which they had perfected.

BAND

Presenting the major entertainment during half-time for the 1963 football season was the C H S marching band. The season was kicked off with the "Good Luck Show." This performance was followed by various others, including the "Kiddies Show," "Hits from Broadway," the "Patriotic Show," and the traditional "Blues Show." To give lasting memories to the season, the band presented a combination of previous shows along with a senior farewell and a personal salute to their director, Donald Nixon.

The concert band has made two major appearance this year, the first being at the Christmas Chapel and the second at the annual Spring Concert. Through much time and effort the band received a I rating at the district band contest.

CANTAB

To answer the question, "What does the word 'Cantab' mean?", let us quote from the Foreword of the 1938 Cantab.

"Also a word of explanation is probably needed concerning the change in the name of this yearbook. In casting about for a name which would be permanently useable from year to year, "The Cantab" was suggested. It is derived from the Latin word "Cantabrigensis", meaning "associated with Cambridge". and in England is commonly used as referring to Cambridge University."

A small shield purchased on the campus of Cambridge University by Mrs. Albert S. Chappellear, furnished the copy from which the artist designed the one used on the cover of our 1964 Cantab.

In this way we honor the town and University that gave us our name.

KEY CLUB

Key Club is an international organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and is composed of outstanding boys of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. One of its main objectives is to develop initiative and leadership.

The club began its activities by planting tulips on the patio of the high school. Later in the fall, several boys, especially new members, attended the Key Club Workshop in Columbus, Ohio. The new members also ushered at the Cambridge Community Theater and helped to clean the Guernsey County Museum.

In November, the Key Club held a special memorial service for President John F. Kennedy after his assassination.

Money making projects included the sale of Benson's Old Home Fruit Cakes and sponsoring an after-game dance.

As a service to the community, the Key Club sold balloons on February 4th and 5th to help make money for the Heart Fund. A total of $286 was collected from this sale.

The main service project to the school was sponsoring and planning the annual Career Day program held March 17. This program enables students to receive vital information on different vocations.

The Cambridge High School Key Club was rated eighth in the state of Ohio for its activities.

The officers for the year were: President, Tom Chapplelear; Vice President, Gary Pletcher; Secretary, Dave Tedrick; Treasurer, Jeff Whitman. Mr. Roy Wolfe is the faculty advisor, Mr. John Fairchild, serving his last year as the Kiwanis advisor, was presented a plaque by the Key Club as a token of their appreciation for his many years of service to the Club. They have made Student Directories, which have the name, address, telephone and room number of all students in our school. Their profits from this and from co-sponsoring a dance are going into a book scholarship. This book scholarship is awarded to a senior member of their club to be used for buying books in college. They also sponsored a work shop, which is for all students in Muskingum and Guernsey Counties interested in teaching. Student teaching in the grade schools in town is also done by most members. After asking permission from the teacher of their chosen class, a member of the F.T.A. observes how class is conducted one morning and tries his or her hand in teaching the next morning.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Three Cheers for the C.H.S. Cheerleaders! The six pretty cheerleaders who have represented their school well during the 1963-64 school year, deserve a big hand from the students at C.H.S. Under the leadership of Miss Stull, the girls practiced after school every night, sometimes as long and as hard as the football and basketball teams.

Besides leading the cheers at the games, the girls also made the posters for the halls, organized pep rallies, and never gave up when the team was losing.

From the Sport Staff of the Cantab-speaking for all the student body, we like to say "Thanks", and we think you are Gr-r-r-eat!

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

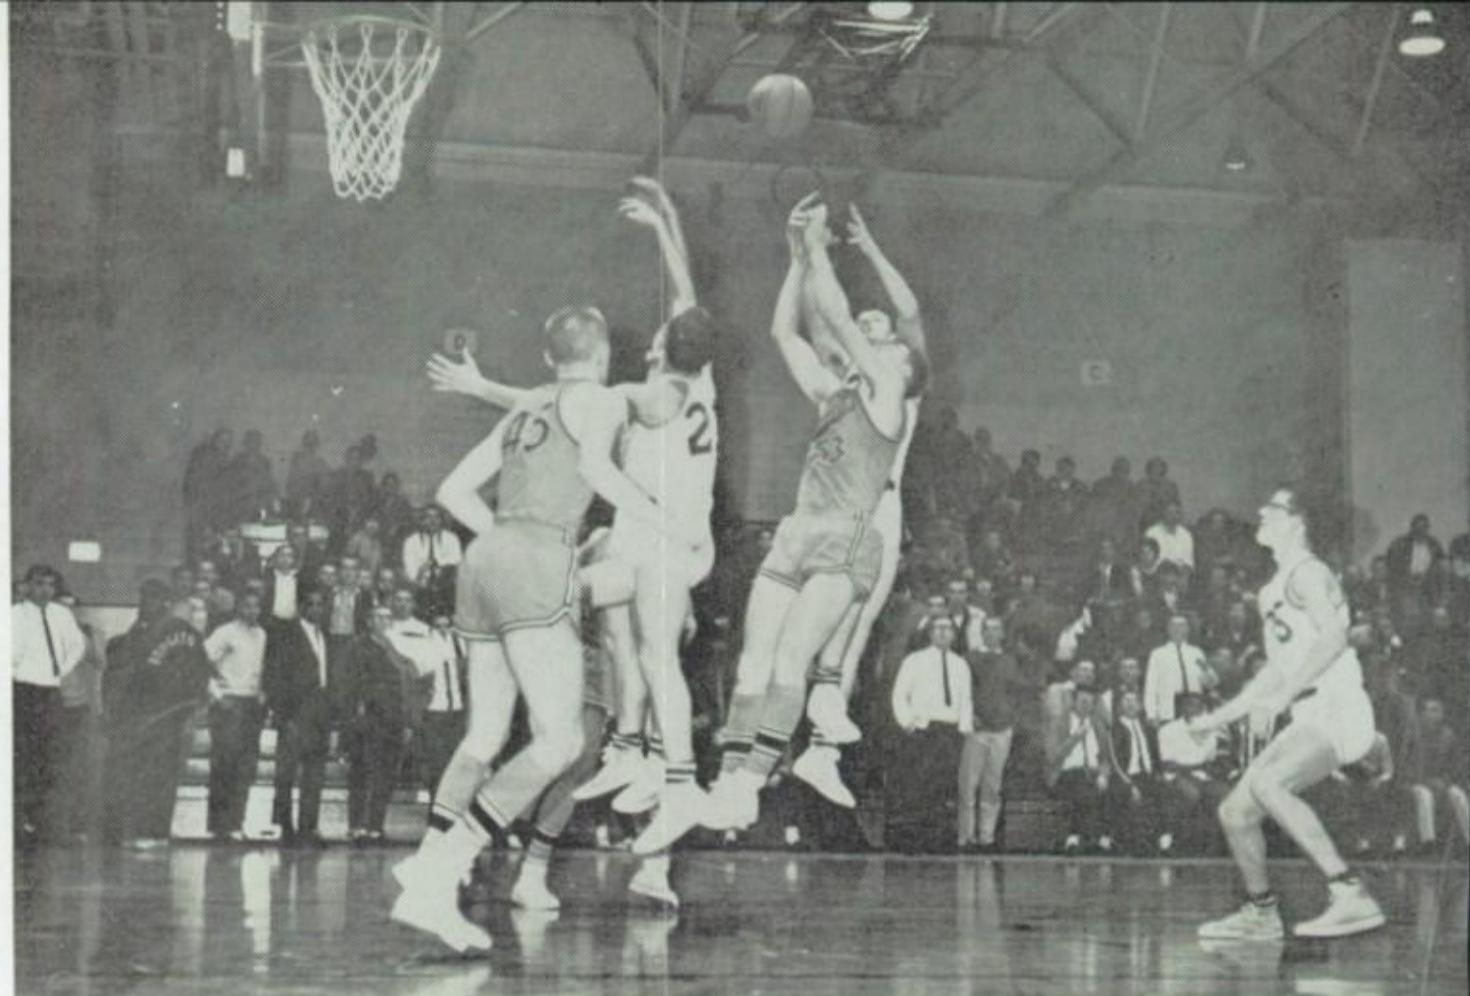

These four girls encouraged the reserve basketball team to a 9 and 9 record. Capt. Linda McLaughlin, Lennie Berry, Sue Betts, and Ginny Conaway practiced with the Varsity Cheerleaders every night after school during the basketball season.

Thanks a lot girls for a job well done, and may you cheer for the rest of your years at C. H. S.

BASKETBALL

The Bobcats, under the leadership of a new head coach, Donald Hyde, started the 1963-64 season with only one returning letterman, senior Jack Garland, who led the Cats in scoring with a total of 289 points for an average of 13.9 points a game.

One of the Cats biggest upsets came against Martins Ferry when the Purple Riders came to town looking for an easy victory, but after 32 minutes of hard fought basketball left with a 66-60 defeat.

On February 24th, the Bobcats went to New Concord to start tournament play against a strong West Muskingum team. With about 30 seconds left in the game and the Cats down by six points, junior Jeff Stover started taking over the game. He scored four points in 20 seconds to bring the Bobcats within two points. Then with 3 seconds left, John Rowe picked off a rebound and passed to Stover who gunned it from half court to tie the game at 69 all. In the overtime, Garland scored 4 straight points while the rest of the team held the Tornadoes to 3, giving Bobcats a 73 to 72 victory.

On February 26th, the Bobcats again went to New Concord to meet the Barnesville Shamrocks. It was no contest as the Bobcats easily won, 83 to 55.

In the next game, Ed Hare scored 30 points, but it was not enough as Maysville defeated Cambridge 62-56.

Although the team has a 7 to 14 record, we must agree that Coach Hyde and the boys gave us many thrilling games.

SPRING

TRACK

The 1964 spring sports program opened with the Cambridge High School track team recording its first win of the season against Cadiz. Coach Carl Dupler and his boys easily took the season opener by a score of $64\frac{1}{2}$ to $54\frac{1}{2}$.

Many records were broken this season. Sophomore Robin Fritts broke the pole vault record which was held by a member of the Cambridge High School faculty, Mr. Thompson. Fritts cleared the bar for 11' 4". Mike Kafury broke his old record of 133' for the shot put when he tossed it 138'.

"Back the Bobcats whether they are winning or losing, and stand up for them whenever she hears someone criticizing the Cats unduly"—this is the duty of each and every Pep Club member. In addition to providing spirit at the games, the club also helps send the cheerleaders to summer camp. Probably the largest organization in the high school with approximately 175 members, the Pep Club has been especially active this year. Under the supervision of Miss Ella Stull, Advisor, the club has sponsored an after-game dance, sold shakers, and all purpose bags, and ushered at football games. The officers for 1963-1964 were: Peggy Leech, President; Sara Swern, Vice President; Pat Lucas, Secretary, and Ellen Cogsil, Treasurer. The Pep Club council and their committees are as follows: Barbara Boester, Band; Jeanne Seal and Lennie Berry, Goal Post; Sharon Hoyt, Project; Sue Betts, Poster; Elaine Wheelock, Publicity; Kay McCracken and Betty Willis, Transportation; Mary Ellen Day, Ushers.

Officers of the club were: President, Dan Putzulu; Vice President, Paul Franks; Secretary-Treasurer, Dennis Jones; and Faculty Advisor, Mr. Roy Ault.

Also included in the program were basketball, volleyball, agility drills, and working on the trampoline.

Mr. Ault and Mr. Cox were the leaders of this class. They were assisted by eight squad leaders: Joe Castner, Dennis Jones, George Saltz, Dave Knapp, Tom Chappalear, Jim Stewart, Dave Zumbrunnen, and Jim Henderson.

Members of this class are to be commended for the hard work and time they put into this voluntary activity.

KEY CLUB COMMITTEE FOR CAREER DAY

James Kagafas, Dennis Jones, Jeffrey Boester, Jeffrey Whitman, Thomas Chapplelear, David Tedrick.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

"We've done our best and will do more."

We're the class of '64.

With such an optimistic attitude we invite you to sit down and relive the elections, football games, assemblies, club meetings, and parties of the class of '64. As you browse through this book of history, you will realize that each chapter develops the plot a step further. If you are interested in discovering who did what, when it happened, and why; we suggest that you read each chapter thoughtfully.

The place was Cambridge High School, and the year was September, 1960. The main characters were some three hundred people, known to all other students by the humiliating name of "Frosh." Even though we were the underdogs we made a good showing, and we surprised the entire student body when our class cheer was presented for the first time.

By the time we had adjusted to our strenuous schedules, it was time to organize and elect class officers. Ted Marlatt was elected president, Robert Manchir served as vice president, the secretary was Reba Robertson, and Patricia Lucas was selected treasurer. We were able to claim ten representatives on the student council. They were: Trudy Armstrong, Diana Celucci, Sally Conaway, Joe Fordyce, Patricia Haschak, Patricia Lucas, Karen McManaway, Barbara Neeland, Nancy VanDyne, and Jim Woodward. Mr. Karl Brown and Mr. Roy D. Wolfe were chosen as our class advisors.

We were represented on the reserve cheerleading squad by Joyce Maioli. Caroline Smith brought honors to our class when she placed first in the Guernsey County TB essay contest. We were also proud to claim two superior ratings at the district and state science fairs when Linda Lang and Linda Lee entered their projects.

As chapter one ended, Freshmen activities reached their peak when we all enjoyed our first class party. With the Eifel Tower in the foreground and tables placed along a French avenue, we all spent an exciting evening at "Cafe de Paris."

Chapter two presents the difficult stage for our class. We weren't considered "babies," but we hadn't yet attained the coveted position of upper-classmen. However, by this time older school mates were beginning to notice us, and we felt that we were greatly experienced. We once again faced the task of selecting class officers and student council members. The following were elected: president, Tom Chapplelear; vice president, Ted Marlatt; secretary, Julie Selders; and treasurer, John Fairchild. Serving in the capacity of homeroom representatives were: Barbara Beatty, Tom Chapplelear, Sally Conaway, Gary DeVault, Sherry Hawthorne, Pamela Hill, Joyce Maioli, Dawn McCloud, Reba Robertson, and Jim Woodward.

Each of the four years in some way presented a unique situation. As sophomores we were caught in the flurry of joining different clubs. For the first time, the girls could join Y-Teens, and the boys were accepted in Hi-Y. Red Cross, Future Teachers, TAPS, and YGAA were also among our activities.

Three marathon talkers

The class treasury was substantially boosted when we sold Bobcat pens and popcorn balls. This was the all-important year when we chose the design for our class rings. And our class was no exception when it came to the excitement of waiting from September until March, so that we too might show our superiority.

Gary DeVault attained a position on the majorette line, while Sherry Hawthorne and Joyce Maioli were elected reserve cheerleaders. We were also represented in the fields of music and athletics. Carolyn Brislen, Beverly Butler, and Pamela Hill were members of the Sophomore Girls' Trio. Outstanding boys who lettered in athletic competition in our sophomore year were Paul Franks, Tom Chapplelear, George Saltz, Ed Helmick, Paul Burton, John Warden, and Jeff Whitman. As we looked forward to being juniors and upperclassmen, we ended our sophomore year with the class party, the theme being "Sayonara."

Chapter three of our book presents the same class, but we had changed greatly. We no longer stood in awe over our class rings, but we began to realize the huge task of sponsoring a prom. To help us plan our projects and carry out our course of action, we elected

In English class

John Warden as president; Dave Tedrick as vice president; Susan Coursen as secretary; and John Coursen as treasurer. Student council members assisting the officers were: Roger Blackburn, Sherry Hawthorne, Pamela Hill, Peggy Leech, Judy Lynch, Joyce Maioli, Ted Marlatt, Dawn McCloud, Judy Moore, John Warden, Jim Woodward, and Jean Wycoff.

As juniors we excelled in many areas. We boasted thirteen members on the National Honor Society. They were: Barbara Beatty, Jeff Boester, Gary DeVault, Bobbi Frisbee, Darlene Gibson, Pamela Hill, Linda Lang, Dawn McCloud, Jackie Rice, Tom Sevrens, Caroline Smith, Jeff Whitman, and Tim Young.

Beauty was recognized when Gary DeVault and

What's

Sherry Hawthorne were elected to the May Day Court; and when Pat Humphrey, Lynn McCulley, and Gary DeVault became majorettes. The junior class was represented on the varsity cheerleading squad by Sherry Hawthorne, Virginia Lotz, Joyce Maioli, and Carol Shimp.

We also claimed several presidents of various school organizations. Eddie Davis was president of the Trojan Hi-Y. The president of the Spartan Hi-Y was Ted Marlatt. Mary Ellen Day was president of the Junior Red Cross. John Warden became Lieutenant Governor of the 13th Division of Ohio Key Clubs.

Under the direction of Miss Marian Atkins, the Cantab Editorial Board composed of Barbara Beatty, John Bowen, Susan Coursen, Jackie Rice, and John Warden, was proud to publish the '63 Cantab in honor of the seniors.

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was the play produced by the junior class. This delightful play was the story of two young girls who traveled to France. Caroline Smith and Linda Lang played leading roles as Miss Lucille Johnson directed.

Highlighting the '63 pigskin season were the upset victories over two of Cambridge's rivals, Marietta and Martins Ferry. Although ranked ninth in the state, Marietta fell in the Homecoming game 22-20 as juniors Tom Chappelar and Paul Franks starred. Later in the season C.H.S. pulled another great upset by nipping powerful Martins Ferry 8-6. Tom Chappelar was selected for the OVAC playing first team fullback. Many juniors helped CHS gain its undefeated season as Paul Franks was co-captain of the track team.

Those elected to represent the class at Buckeye Girls' State were Barbara Beatty and Pamela Hill. Ted Marlatt, John Warden, Jeff Whitman, and Jim Woodward were selected to attend Buckeye Boys' State.

Beyond a doubt, the most spectacular event of the year was our beautiful junior-senior prom—"Moonlight and Roses." The Embers provided the music as everyone spent an evening in colonial paradise. Jim Kagafas and Paul Franks served as co-chairmen for the prom.

As the third chapter ended we looked with keen anticipation to our final year. At last we too would possess the magic power that would make all others look at us with admiration.

As we approach the end of our high school book, the class of '64 again expressed its confidence in John Warden by electing him the senior class president. He was assisted by Gary DeVault, vice president; Pat Lucas, secretary; and Paul Moorehead, treasurer.

Under the able leadership of Jim Woodward, the following seniors served on the Student Council: Nell Ann Caskey, Sherry Hawthorne, Pam Hill, Matt Magers, Judy Moore, Jackie Rice, Jeff Whitman, and Jean Wycoff. Jim was also assisted by Jeff Boester, vice president, and Sherry Hawthorne, secretary.

As the highest upperclassmen, we now assumed the leadership in the majority of the clubs. The club presidents were Roberta Frisbee, Y-Teens; Caroline Smith, Choir; Robert Spare, Future Teachers; Sherry Hackney, Future Nurses; Dan Putzulu, Varsity "C"; Tom Chappelar, Key Club; Peggy Leech, Pep Club; Jean Wycoff, G.A.A.; Jim Kagafas, Spartan Hi-Y; Paul Moorehead, Art Club; Karen Sigman, Future Homemakers; Ron Miller, Traffic Safety; Jeff Whitman, National Honor Society; Kenny Sharp, Band; Bill Hill, V.I.C.; Roberta Frisbee, TAPS; Alan Seaman, Amateur Radio; Barbara Beatty and Pam Hill, Reporter coeditors; Marge Ludwick, editor of the Jeffersonian JG. To them we say "a job well done!"

As each school day began, the students of C.H.S. heard the voice of one of the five student announcers. Those pleasant voices belonged to Pam Hill, Linda Lang, John Warden, Jeff Whitman, and Jim Woodward.

Additional honors were brought to our class when Roger Blackburn, Pam Hill, Susan Miller, and Jeff Whitman attended the Current Affairs Institute at Cincinnati. Because of excellent scores on a current affairs test, these seniors were awarded this honor. Mr. Schaub accompanied the group on their most interesting week-end.

Great success was bestowed upon the Class of '64 when the senior class play, "Pioneer, Go Home," was presented. It was under the capable direction of Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Wigginton. Tim Young and Joyce Maioli had the leading roles in this comical production.

Helpful

Leading the Cambridge Bobcats in the 1963-64 football season were co-captains Paul Franks and George Saltz. Our team ended the season with a four and six record, but their effort was realized by all. The most valuable player of the football season was Tom Chappelear. He received honorable mention in our state for his outstanding performances.

Bringing special beauty and charm to our annual Homecoming game was Homecoming Queen Joyce Maioli. Her attendants were Sherry Hawthorne, Peggy Leech, Judy Moore, and Julie Selders.

The cheerleading squad was led by captain Sherry Hawthorne. Other senior cheerleaders were Joyce Maioli, Judy Moore, and Carol Shimp. Their familiar voices rang out the cheer, "Let's go Bobcats!"

Also participating in the football season was the C.H.S. marching band. Their "blue show" at Homecoming was a thrill to all who were present. Head majorette was Gary DeVault. Under her terrific leadership were majorettes Trudy Armstrong, Lynn McCulley, and Pat Humphrey. Later in the year the band received a "I" rating at the district music contest, which was held in Cambridge, and they went on to the state competition.

Kenny Sharp received a "I" rating at the district music contest for his solo on the baritone.

Also representing our class in the field of music were the Chordettes. This group was composed of seven girls. Five of the girls were seniors. They were Barbara Beatty, Carolyn Brislen, Beverly Butler, and Pam Hill, accompanied by Jackie Rice.

At the fall induction of the National Honor Society, nineteen seniors were taken in. Twelve more were inducted in the spring.

Pam Hill brought distinction to our class when she received the highest score on the test given by the Temperance League of Ohio. Since she won this contest, she received a free five-day trip to Washington, D.C. in June.

Reigning as the queen at the Y-Teen formal was Roberta Frisbee, the president of the club. Her maid of honor was Darlene Hill. The theme of the formal was "Carousel." This formal was an evening to remember.

Nancy Lucas was named as the Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Dawn McCloud was chosen by the girls of C.H.S. to be the May Day Queen. Her maid of honor was Jean Wycoff. Her attendants were Barbara Beatty, Joyce Maioli, and Carol Shimp.

Adding a special kind of beauty to our class was John Bowen, who won the baby picture contest sponsored by the Reporter.

Jeff Whitman was selected as the captain for the baseball team.

In the years to come we will always remember the Junior-Senior Prom, the class plays, Senior Day Off, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and that day of days, Commencement.

A game of Amber

Most of our days at C.H.S. were new experiences. They were just what we made of them. We should be able to profit from our mistakes, and use the firm foundation which we have gained at C.H.S. to help us face the future with confidence in ourselves and our fellow men.

Always remember —

*"All the world's a stage
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts."*

Barbara Beatty - Jackie Rice

Our American Heritage

A nation whose people are educated to think for themselves and will do so, is a nation of strength—a bulwark of freedom. It is, then, not only our privilege to have an education, and to think freely and intelligently—it is our duty to do so; for freedom rests on truth. This opportunity we are given to know truth is our Right—it is our American Heritage.
